DOMINATING THE DECADE

-Kerri DiMauro

Waltham High has brought to us many great years and in looking back I smile through my tears. This special place has an unoriginal name but it's not like any other, it's not the same. The goals we have reached, friends we've met, the dreams still ahead, the path is now set. Our days have come and gone so very fast but in our hearts, they'll always last.

Graduation is only a way of breaking from the old dreams while we begin anew, with not just an end, but a beginning too.

The class of '90 is undoubtedly the best, embracing a new decade will be our test. The mark we have made can never be erased, our legacy will live on and can never be replaced.

Although this means goodbye, it's not a real end. Time goes on and on and a friend is always a friend. Where have we learned, lived and laughed; need we guess? As I look around I know it's our dear WHS.

DOMINATING THE DECADE

-Kerri DiMauro

As we, the graduating class of 1990, begin our journey beyond these hallowed halls, these much-dreaded classrooms and masses of books, we must ponder and look back for a moment. We reflect on our accomplishments at W.H.S. and our numerous involvements in our infamous dances, fundraisers, rallies, academic organizations and clubs, sports and community service programs. We remember all too well the familiarity and sense of security we felt. We would like to share with you now within the pages of this special yearbook the pride and nurturing of four years complete with victories, defeats, smiles and tears. We pass through these doors for the very last time knowing we have come full circle, yet ready to embrace the challenges ahead of us, we are a better person having been a member of the very special family that represents W.H.S.

DOMINATING THE DECADE

William Greenwood

The time spent at the Waltham Vocational High School has probably been the best four years of our lives, because at the "Voc." we are not just students and teachers; we are family. Family is when the students and teachers join together for a cause, like saving the "Voc." from being closed, collecting well over two thousand cans for the poor last year, or making the "Voc." a better place to be, which we owe mostly to our Director, Mrs. Marsha McDonough, who has brought new spirit and vitality to our school. We have grown as young men and women, who made the choice to learn a trade and go out into the world to serve our community in whatever field we chose to pursue.

DOMINATING
THE DECADE

-Kerri DiMauro

The Waltham High School and Vocational Faculty have seen the seniors grow and mature over the four years spent together. We, the students, have worked toward our individual potentials, our personal goals, and have come closer and closer toward attaining them through the inexhaustible energies of our teachers. Without talented and caring faculty members, the class of 90 would now be facing futures that we would not be prepared to make the most of and opportunities we would not be able to seize.

Our teachers have shown their dedication outside of the classroom as well in attending our annual WHS events. They've cheered for our sports teams, been to our rallies, the Homecoming Parade, Gong Show, Dance Theatre, the Senior Revue and ultimately, our Graduation. They have been our instructors, coaches and our friends. Thank you for your patience and knowledge throughout our years at Waltham High School.

1990 Yearbook Dedication

It is our pleasure to dedicate the 1990 Mirror to Mr. Paul McGovern, a man who has greatly influenced each and every one of us in his own special way. He is a former student of Waltham High School. Having graduated in 1966, Mr. McGovern went on to Westfield State College where her graduated in 1970 with a B.A. in History. From Fitchburg State College in 1978 he received a Masters in education, with emphasis in educational leadership and management.

Mr. McGovern then began his career with the Waltham School Department in 1971, when he became a History teacher at South Junior High School. He also coached South's Basketball team. Mr. McGovern then went on to become the Assistant Principal of South Middle School. He has been the Head Coach of the Waltham High School Football team for eight years, and was an assistant coach for nine years prior to that. Fortunately for us, he came to Waltham High in September of 1987 to take over the job of our housemaster. He has touched all our lives in ways he will never know.

Waltham High School is fortunate to have many outstanding teachers, and this educator is no exception. After graduating from The University of Michigan, this woman began teaching in Walthams Elementary Schools. Her innovative and imaginative teaching methods soon gained her the respect of her fellow teachers as well as her superiors. After six years at South Middle School, she came to the High School, where she took over the demanding job of choral director.

Once at the High School, she quickly went to work. With the help of her husband Bill, she created Walthams award winning jazz choir, which competes each year at UNH. Under her direction Walthams show choir became one of the best on the East Coast, and has competed in NYC, Washington D.C., Chicago, and Europe.

People who have worked with this woman know that she is more than just a teacher, she is also a friend. She will take her own free time and use it to talk with a student who has a problem, whatever that problem may be. She has given up countless evenings with her family to have rehearsals with her choral groups, and she is constantly striving to make her students work harder. This woman has made teaching a total commitment, not just a part time job. The staff of the Waltham High School Mirror is delighted to dedicate the 1990 yearbook to Mrs. Johanne H. McIvor.

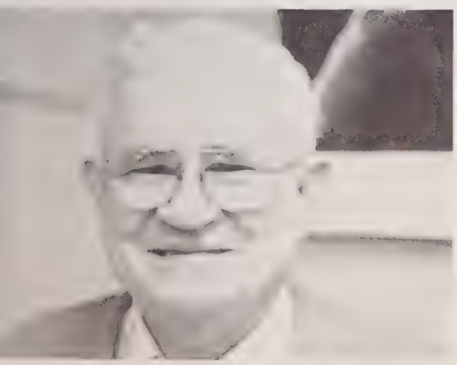
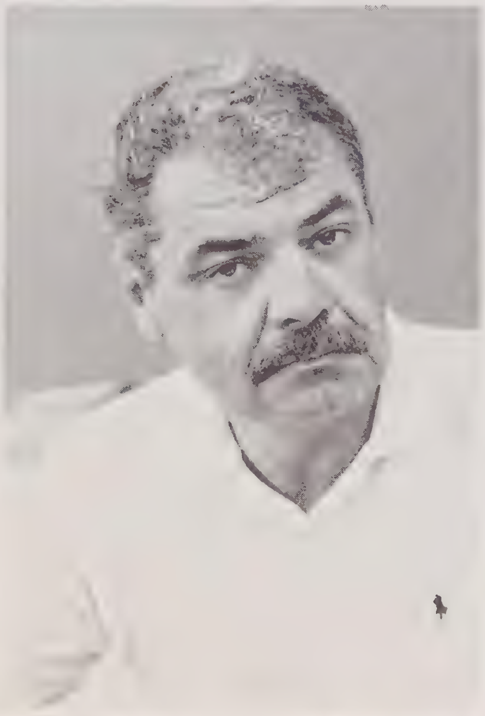
Gracey Magrath came to Waltham from Ireland as a child. She was educated in the Waltham School system, and received her undergraduate and graduate degree from Framingham State College.

She has been an educator for thirty-nine years in Home Economics and thirty of those years have been spent in Waltham. Over the years she has shown her kindness and unselfishness to faculty and students alike.

Ms. Magrath's day did not end with the final bell. She spent many hours working on costumes for school productions, organizing social functions and giving extra help to students.

Ms. Magrath, a gracious and loving woman will be greatly missed by both the school and the community.





1990 Vocational Yearbook Dedication

Mrs. Barbara Scichilone and friends from the Vocational.

We, the students of Waltham Vocational High School class of 1990 proudly dedicate this yearbook to our friend Mrs. Scichilone.

During the past four years, you have helped us to grow and to understand ourselves and each other. Your high spirits and constant encouragement have helped us to recognize our goals and, above all, to realize these goals.

With sincere appreciation and recognition of your fairness, contagious school spirit, sense of humor, total dedication, support and enthusiasm, we extend our thanks to you.

For all of your time that you have worked with us, we are proud to dedicate our yearbook to you.

DOMINATING

THE DECADE

-Kerri DiMauro

The 1990 year was a remarkable one as always for the WHS sports teams. For the Waltham Hawks there can never be a goal to big, a dream to obscure. Every team worked its hardest through the energy and efforts of every player to reach for the stars. In the back of our minds we are still there on the football, baseball or softball fields, on the track, in the swimming pool, on the ice and in the basketball and tennis courts. Our moments of glory, our teamwork, our school pride ... they're with us forever. Good luck to the future Hawk teams-you have a great legacy to uphold.

The 1989 Waltham Football Team was the epitome of the phrase: "Hard work and dedication will lead to success." After a slow start of 2-2, the Hawks strung together five consecutive wins. The first four wins in that string were against teams that were rated in the top ten in the Eastern Massachusetts Football Standings. The highlight being a 8-6 win over undefeated Arlington. In what may be the final Newton-Waltham game, the Hawks trounced the Tigers 32-0. The football team finished number seven in the ratings with a 7-3 record. To finish so high with three losses is a tribute to the difficult schedule that Waltham played. Two of their three losses were at the hands of eventual superbowl teams. It would be nice to list the seniors who contributed to this great season but such a list would have to contain all the seniors on the team. Tri-Captains John O'Brien and Mark Gallagher were the team MVPs and a number of Hawks made the Suburban League All-Star Team.

Congratulations to the 1989 football team for a great year and a thank you from the coaching staff for bringing back the pride to Waltham Football.

The 1989 football cheerleading season was very exciting. Not only did we cheer for the unstoppable Hawks with a 7-3 record, we also converted to a new form of cheerleading: power cheering. The change was necessary because our old style of cheerleading was becoming obsolete as power cheering began dominating the cheering world. We attended UCA camp to learn the "new style." In addition to learning new cheers and adopting a new style, we learned many pom-pom routines which enhanced our game performances. We hope cheerleading continues to grow and that future squads cheer for a team as good as the football team of '89.

Golf Team
Record: 6-7-1

This year the Waltham High Golf Team finished the season with a 6-7-1 record in the Suburban League. This year's team had three returning starters. Seniors Scott McCue, Jim Castoldi, and Junior Tim O'Toole along with Freshmen newcomer Tom Furey led the way in many of the Hawk matches. The team also had outstanding performances from Seniors John Moran, Brendan Legros, and Sophomore Jason Cormier. This young Hawk team gave a solid effort every time they stepped on the course. A fine example of this was when they took on eventual League Champion Newton North and lost on the final putt of the day. The team came out and gave it everything they had before finally succumbing to Newton. Although it was a disappointing loss, the future looks good for the Hawk team.

The Waltham High School Girl's Swim Team ended their season with a splash! The Lady Hawks had a successful year, finishing up with a record of seven wins and five losses. Every swimmer was hardworking and contributed something to the team.

A big help to the team were the five seniors, all who have been a member of the swim team since their freshman year. These five girls earned varsity letters as freshmen and contributed strong performances throughout their four seasons. Wendy Recine led the Suburban League in the breast stroke, taking either first or second in every race in which she participated. Julie Bolles and Keri MacDonald were considered two of the strongest and versatile swimmers on the squad. Both have been good examples to the rest of the team. Senior Michelle Ferdette also contributed to the team. Her good spirit and willingness to try anything gave the team an extra spark. Captain Amy Jordan was the Hawk's top butterfly swimmer. She kept the team going and wished to help out whenever possible. Susan Luvisi swam for her first year and earned Junior Varsity recognition.

The season of 1991 awaits the talent of the underclassmen. Various juniors, sophomores, and freshmen were and will be major factors to a winning season! Juniors Christine Sumner, Kerry Blakely, Kathy Dunne, and Kathy Bryant will be strong swimmers and lead the team to victory. Freshman Karen Martin has already broken school records and without a doubt will top those next fall!

Keep up the good work and Good Luck next year!

Despite their disappointing record, the 1989 Girls' volleyball team was successful in many important ways. Coach Loraine Bogosian stated that "the team was capable of winning every match that they took into three games," and this spirited squad come close to doing just that several times!

Volleyball is definitely a team sport, and the '89 squad worked beautifully as a team.

At the Awards Banquet, several players were recognized for their outstanding efforts. Co-captain Melanie Rogers, a 1989 All-Star, won the Coach's Award for contributing "hustle that really brought our team together," as coach Bogosian put it. Cindy Breton won the Most Improved Player Award; Cindy's improved blocking were crucial on defense. Karen Corkum was recognized as 1989's Most Dedicated Player for both her consistent serving skills and commitment to the team in general. Lauren Eaton, our powerful spiker and blocker, was recognized for being selected as an All-Star, while Co-captain Nancy Martin received a Three-Year Varsity Award in appreciation of her superior offensive and defensive skills.

Since almost all of the Varsity players will graduate this year, best wishes for a successful season go out to Coach Bogosian and everyone on the 1990 Varsity Squad. Bump! Set! Spike!

Girls' Varsity Soccer
Record: 13-4-1

"P.I.C." ... a familiar acronym to any member of the Girls' Varsity Soccer Team. "Pride, Intensity, and Commitment" were the contents of that acronym and were the precise recipe for the Lady Hawks tournament-bound team. Their 13-4-1 record broke all previous records in Waltham High's history of Girls' Soccer. The "spectacular sister" combos of Dawn and Diana Famosi, Kara and Hillary Rooney, and Allison, Amy, and Suzanne Hardiman were definite contributors to the team's success. Shelley LeBrun and her indestructible "Mr. Leg" were a team within themselves. Susie Santos with her natural talent and Meredith Lobo with her consistency both led to the squad's record breaking victories. The team's togetherness, prompted by Tracy Bullerwell, Michelle Croteau, Robin Curry, and Linda Deveaux, is something that the Girls' Soccer Team will never forget. The continual strive for unity and sense of "team" the Lady Hawks had was the uniqueness that made them a true tournament team. Coach John Kelly sums up the tremendous 1989 season with the familiar phrase ... "Simply the Best!"

The squad began with a shaky start. Co-captains Laura Magazu and Cassandra Jarnis were the only returning cheerleaders. The squad which consisted of only eleven cheerleaders, managed to pull off a good season. The boys managed to have a decent season with the continuous support of the cheerleaders. Other seniors were Ruth Chlapowski, Michelle Garside, and Julie Gorman.

The boys' swim team went through a tough and competitive season, but coach Murray and Ragusa were proud of their individual accomplishments.

Senior captain and leading point scorer, Matt Goldberg, helped in bringing the team to some close wins by placing first or second in most of his events. Goldberg qualified for the sectional swim meet in both the 50 yard and 100 yard freestyle.

Junior Tim Mahoney had an outstanding season leading the team in the backstroke event. Mahoney also qualified for the sectionals in backstroke, finishing in twelfth place.

Freshman Donny Lucente, the team's leading scorer had an outstanding first year. Lucente also qualified for the sectional swim meet in the 100 yard backstroke and looks very promising for the years to come.

Freshman Geejo Vargise also showed great potential for the years to come. Varigse showed great dedication and effort to the team.

Junior Rich Despres and sophomore Steve Neville had a good season. Despres held the team in the breaststroke. Neville proved to negative split his freestyle events in three consecutive meets.

The boys' swim team for the 1989-90 season had a meaningful year through hard work and determination. The group of young men were able to work together and produce a great team.

The Waltham High Cross Country team had a tough but productive season. A young and inexperienced team of long distance runners had ample preparation for a successful indoor track season.

The Seniors were led by captain, Kevin Parent who was nominated for his third year running as a Suburban League All-Star. Other returning seniors, Dan Goncalves and Seth Harris added much crucial depth to the team during the season.

The season went 1-5, with the only win being a shutout against Quincy. Kevin Parent placed second in the Suburban League meet and was awarded the teams MVP. Other awards that this senior received were: Single Best Performance Award and a certificate for being one of the ten Suburban League All Stars.

Good luck for future runners!

The Waltham Girls' Cross Country Team got off to a great start in the fall of 1989. The Team was made up of many high striving athletes ready to win and enjoy their victories after hours of training for each meet. The coach, Joseph Tranchita, was widely respected for having trained the Waltham cross country team to be so competitive.

Members of the team were Julie Rando, Amy Ward, Liz Hazel, Lillian Cheng, Helene Grossman, Lori Shomphe, Maureen Galving, Christina Devitt and Ann Jones. These Lady Hawks were contenders for the Suburban League title for the fifth consecutive season until their loss to Newton North late in the season. When the time came to run that final stretch, Waltham dominated Brackton, Cambridge, Quincy, Brookline, and tied with North Quincy, giving it a total record of four wins and three losses. Good luck for the future!

The Hawks finished at 7 wins and 13 losses. Posting this record was extremely difficult in the Suburban League. The team was led by Tri-captains Joe Frenna, Mark Gallagher, and Mike Gill. Joe, a Suburban League All-Star and the team's Co-MVP, was second in scoring and first in assists and steals. Mark, who suffered an early season injury, came back to be a scoring threat and a rebounding force. Mike came on strong towards the end of the campaign. He was an emotional leader and won the Most Improved Player award.

The supporting cast included another Suburban League All-Star and the other team MVP, John Cowie. John led the team in scoring and rebounding and carried the Hawks most of the year. Two other outstanding multiple sports athletes included Chris Shaw and Shawn Souza. Chris, who was successful in his football season, brought his talents to the basketball court, bringing much pleasure to his coach and teammates. Shawn had several outstanding games, including a career high 18 points against a strong Malden team. Three other Seniors who contributed in a major way all season, were Sal Barba, George Gurney, and Pete Vaccaro. Sal began the year in the starting line-up but then he and his smooth moves became one of the first off the bench. George contributed from his small forward position in rebounding and quick scoring. Pete was a pillar of strength supporting each member of the team and received the Sportsmanship award. Along with the Seniors, three outstanding underclass athletes made the varsity squad. Junior guards, Phil Ranucci and Dan Hurley, were two of them. Phil made the team as a Sophomore and D.J. was called up after giving many J.V. teams too much to handle. Finally, Sophomore, Jeff Fuller, rounds out the team. He followed up an incredible football season by being a tenacious rebounder both offensively and defensively.

The 1989-90 Basketball Season marked the end of cheerleading at Waltham High School for Senior Co-captains Carla Salvucci and Keri MacDonald. This season's small squad proved to be one of the best and most enjoyable of recent years.

The squad's hard work began at camp, in July of 1989, and continued throughout the season. This not only resulted in the achievement of personal goals but in a level of cheerleading never before seen at Waltham High. The squad also developed a strong camaraderie through the trials and tribulations of the season.

None of this, however, could have been achieved without the leadership of the coaches. Michelle Kierstead, in her third year coaching, and Jacqueline Antico, in her first year as a coach, pushed the girls at each practice and developed creative new cheers and routines which elevated the squad's level of performance.

Each member of the squad is responsible for the success of this season. Their positive attitudes and individual talents, along with the strong coaching element, made success unavoidable.

The 1989-90 wrestling season, although not that impressive in regard to statistics, showed much promise for the future of the team. With only one senior, the Hawk grapplers posted a 4-15 season. Senior Chris Dougherty had an excellent record, with 24 wins (nineteen of which were pins), and 8 losses. Juniors Chip Cononi, Phil Fournier, and Steve Devane all returned for their third year wrestling and had a very good season, showing potential for winning next year. There was a showing of Freshman and Sophomores who made up a large percentage of the team. First year head coach, Ron Treznadel, had much to be proud of and has high hopes for a winning season in the years ahead. With more support from parent organizations and an increase in student body participation, the Waltham Hawks will soon become a bigger and better team. Good luck next year!

The 1989-90 Girls' Varsity Basketball season was a successful one. Many doubted the lady Hawks because the only returning seniors from last year's tournament team were Co-captains Tina Meuse and Julie Rando. However, the team was not just successful, they made the tournament and obtained the second best record, 14-6.

The seniors received many honors. Tina Meuse, Julie Bolles, and Julie Rando were voted Suburban League All-Stars. Julie Rando was voted a Co-MVP of the Suburban League. The News Tribune chose Seniors Susie Santos and Julie Bolles as all-stars and voted Julie Rando MVP of the all-star team.

The team went into the tournament with a home court advantage, defeating Haverhill. However, the lady Hawks were defeated by the powerful Bishop Fenwick team.

The season was a long and hard four months. The team reached its position through a lot of determination, perseverance, and teamwork. Success could not have been achieved without this combination. Other seniors who deserve recognition are: “Conclusion” Ruth Chlapowski, “Denial & Bang 'em” Robin Curry, “Sweet Linda” Linda Deveaux, “Outside shot” Kerri DiMauro, manager Kerri Hill, and “3-pointer” Amy Jordan.

The team would like to thank all their fans and especially Coach Connors.

The 1989-90 Hockey Team had a memorable season. It can be remembered most because of the great determination and hard work of this small young team.

After a set back in the first game, the team rallied together and came on top for the next two games against Peabody and Revere respectively. The team showed great effort and winning results as the team finished the Greater Boston League with a 3-2-1 record.

Entering the Suburban League, some of the players were troubled with injuries, which at the time affected the whole team. The team effort remained constant throughout the season considering it was a young team. The determination of our players and the camaraderie of our team never failed during the season.

The Hawks had a good overall season with a 9-10-1 record. The team showed great discipline, hard work, and a positive attitude. Of all the games played, some were won, some were lost, but the greatest victories were personal.

The 1989-90 hockey cheerleading season was one of the most exciting memories of our high school years. It was based upon two senior captains and twelve energetic girls. It was a small squad this year which made it easier to work with.

It was a great experience for all of us. We enjoyed cheering for the hockey players but most of all we loved cheering them on to their victories. They had a great season with a record of 10-9-2. We wish the best of luck to the 1990-91 hockey team.

We had some fun moments together and we would like to remember these memories: Dig, Jam, Jam, Twist, Twist, Twist.

Swishing down the slope of Prospect Hill this year added just another exciting venture for the Waltham Ski Team.

Head Coach Tim Reed "REEDMAN" and assistant coaches Bob Hazel (BOB-O) and Albi Rizzo made our season all the better.

The boys squad ended their season with a league record of 45 wins, 5 losses and 1 tie. The Dover Rovers and Xaverian Brothers were some competition for them, but they still carried their ski tips through that finish line ending up as the 1990 Massachusetts Bay East League Champions.

Jerry Lane finishing 4th in the league and Mark Boulton was tagging, or should I say pushing along behind in 5th position. Matt Kiernan also had a great year.

This year neither the boys nor the girls finished too high in the top rankings for the state. The "guys" all hung in and placed decently ranging from 23rd to 59th. The girls having a tough year competing against the "Rovers", finished 2nd in the league. Still having great spots in the top ten places in the league were; Jen Connors who finished 3rd. Allison Hardiman finishing 6th and Kara Rooney finishing 9th. With a record of 41 wins and 4 losses and not being able to have Amy Hardiman race for us this year due to a very rare illness, we did what we had to do and we sure had fun doing it. I'll never forget those days at Prospect, especially Manny.

Speaking for my fellow teammates; it seems like yesterday we were praying that we were just put in that 8th position. Now all we have left is our memories of Prospect and Reed, but never forget its Uup, Dowwn, Uup, Dowwn.

We wish the best for years to come and good luck with "REEDMAN" Uuuummmm!!!

The Boys Indoor Track Team had a record of three and three. Captain Kevin Parent led the way with strong performances in the mile and two mile races. Also contributing to the Hawks cause were shotputters John Bourque, Rupert English, and Kevin Biddy. Finishing off with strong performances were sprinters Ralph Brutus and Ricardo Prudent, and distance runners Dan Congalves and Don Davidson.

The Girls' Indoor Track Team posted a 1-5 record for the overall season. Despite such a setback, many individuals performed well. Seniors on the team included, captain Jennifer Englehart, Amy Ward, Maura Murphy and Cassandra Gallette.

The team was young, determined and showed definite potential throughout the season. We had our strong points with three individuals qualifying for the state meet. These included: Amy Ward in the 300 yard dash, Kim Lam in the 500 yard dash and Jennifer Englehart in the 600 yard dash.

Next year more than half the team will return with Susan Pancaldo, Lori Shomphe and Ann Kontos as tri-captains. Even though the record doesn't show success, individual attitudes such as determination and dedication, indeed, were the strong benefactors of the team. Good luck to them and all the years ahead!

The 1990 girls' tennis team was the most successful team Waltham has had in several years. Under the wing of Coach Jay Levine and seasoned veteran tri-captains: Carla Salvucci, Marisa Pizzi, and Keri MacDonald, the team soared to new heights, achieving a 6-6 record for the season. This team's success is not only marked by the six wins but also the closeness of the six losses.

There were several competitive matches with teams which in the past were out of reach. The Hawks proved to be a potential threat to both Newton North and Cambridge. The girls had an honorable loss to Newton the one time they competed against them, losing the match by third sets and tie breakers in the third set.

The girls lost twice to Cambridge. After the weak performance of the Hawks at Cambridge, the girls eagerly awaited the second match against Cambridge. Wanting revenge on their home court, the performance of the Hawks surpassed the expectations of Coach Levine. Noting the vengeance and determination in the strokes of the lady Hawks, Cambridge saw the Hawks as a threat and played as aggressively. The match could have gone either way as the third singles match entered its third set. The third set was competitive and resulted in a victory for Cambridge. This loss against Cambridge wasn't just a loss, it eliminated the girls from possible tournament participation.

The other teams in the league, including Brockton, proved to be no match for the girls. Each time faced against Brockton, the girls "boxed" them with a victory, beating them 3-2 at Brockton and 4-1 at home.

Matching the closeness and camaraderie that existed among this season's players will be difficult. Through this camaraderie and the tremendous performance of not only the seniors but also the underclassmen, the girls left their mark in the splitting Suburban League. In the Suburban League, the Waltham Girls' Tennis Team will be remembered with respect and as an opposing force.

With a nucleus of first time players, the Hawk boys' tennis team struggled through a winless season. There were, however, some bright spots. There was some excellent play from the singles players and there appears to be some promising players among the freshmen members.

The team looks forward to working hard and putting it together for next season!

The 1990 baseball team had a promising season. Although the Hawks did not make the tournament, they were successful. Led by senior guidance and a solid group of underclassmen, they finished with a 9-9 record. The Hawks were flying high at the start of the season, taking the Greater Boston League by storm and compiling a 5-2 record. The Hawks then moved on to the difficult Suburban League, featuring extraordinary Brockton and North Quincy teams and a strong Newton North team. Senior standouts included Captain and Suburban League All-Star Kevin Ryan, who finished among the leaders in batting average. Others were Scott McCue, centerfield; Mike Gill, second base; Mark Gallagher, right field; Joe Frenna, Brendan Legros, Greg Thomasetti, Ray Gerald, and Jim Owens.

Waltham was fortunate enough to have Jeff Ryan, Suburban League triple crown winner. Along with Jeff were two other Suburban League All-Stars: pitcher Tim O'Toole and outfielder Chip Cononi. Rounding out the line up were short stop D.J. Hurley, Jason Schoener, and J.V. call-ups: Brian Farell, Mike Horrigan, and Jeff Fuller.

The highlight of the season was the final matchup between arch-rival Newton North. The Tigers were tournament bound and Waltham had one more shot to prove to them which team was dominant before the Suburban League break-up. The Hawks did so by trouncing the Tigers 8-2 on a strong pitching performance, excellent defense, and a potent offense.

A slow start for the Waltham High Lady Hawks was very misleading. Their record of 1 and 5 did not promise for an extremely victorious season. Working hard as a team, the girls' opened the Suburban League with a shutout against Brookline. From then on it was all up hill. Amy Jordan and Kerri DiMauro took the mound for the Hawks. Jordan posted an 8-5 record consisting of two no-hit shutouts and a win against archrival Brocton.

DiMauro had much to show for herself and her team when she displayed her varsity material with a perfect record of four wins and no losses to her credit. Contributing to the teams' victories were Susie Santos and Kerri Hill. Playing a strong second base, Santos was everywhere she was needed. Her speed and agility was needed and supplied. Kerri Hill held third base with strong defense and skill. Other fielders were Linda Deveaux, Shelly LeBrun, Julie Rando, Sandra Maione and Jen Griffin. Deveaux, LeBrun and Rando earned their spots in the outfield and were definite keys to the winning season. Griffin and Maione used their skill and power with the bat.

By the end of the season, the Suburban League was aware of the Waltham High Softball Team and believed they were the team to beat. The Hawks ended the season as Co-Suburban League Champs and were represented by seven all stars. Playing for the first team was Amy Jordan, Susie Santos and Linda Deveaux. The second team consisted of Kerri DiMauro, Juli Quirk, Stacey Delaney and Lisa Morrison. At the softball banquet awards were given out. The MVP award was given to Co-Captain Amy Jordan and Co-Captain Susie Santos received the Golden Glove award. Linda Deveaux was presented with the Most Improved Award and junior Juli Quirk received the Batting award.

As the girls enter a new league in 1991, we wish them all the best of luck and wish for yet another tourney bound season.

The softball team of 1990 would like to credit their coach, Joseph Salvo for their success. Without coach Salvo and his never ending encouragement, the tournament would have been beyond reach. We just want to say: Keep up the good work coach and good luck next year and in the years to come!

Seniors contributing were Sean Souza, John Cowie, Seth Harris, Dan Congalves, Peter Vaccaro, and Dave Chevalier.

The 1990 lacrosse team had its share of ups and downs. Due to lack of experience, the team did not have an outstanding record, but the record does not reflect the intensity, heart, and courage with which the team played.

The highlight of the season and the team's only victory was against B.C. High. The team played its finest game of the year with most of the squad contributing to the victory. It was a hard fought victory with Waltham holding the lead for most of the game and fending off a B.C. High comeback to win the game. The game resulted in a 13-9 victory, giving the Hawks a season record of 1-15.

The team was led by three, four year veterans: Chris Jacovides, John O'Brien, and Chris Casey. However, each player brought the team a special and unique quality which made the team closer together as players and friends. This team will be remembered as a team with lots of courage and a team that never quit despite the odds it faced.

DOMINATING THE DECADE

-Kerri DiMauro

This year was a successful one for all the performing groups at Waltham High. In February, "Music Unlimited", which is Waltham's show choir, competed at a national competition in the Chicago area. They were the only group from the New England area to attend, and they received praise from the judges at the competition. The bands also had an excellent year. Both the Wind Ensemble and the Orchestra received awards for their performances at the MICA competition in April, and our marching band had the privilege of performing and competing in Florida's Walt Disney World. The Drama department treated the public to two excellent productions: "The Princess Bride" in November, and "Night Must Fall" in April. In the Art Department, several students were highlighted with special awards for their artwork, which was entered into the Globe competition. These many awards and prizes earned by our performing and artistic groups prove that the fine arts program at Waltham High is one of the best in the State, and one that we all should be proud of.

This year was indeed a great one for members of the Waltham High School Art Department. This year Waltham participated in the "Globe Scholastics" Art Competition, and the results were good. Karen Corkum came home with a gold medal, as did Bob Moody for his sculpture. Three Waltham students; Bob Moody, Eric Hoffman, and David Chang, were asked to compete at the National Level. Although none of them won at the national competition, all three of them show promise, and hope to pursue careers in art.

This year was a memorable one for members of the WHS drama club. The club, under the direction of Ms. Lashoto, successfully presented two plays this year. In the fall, the club presented Monty Python's "The Holy Grail", which was entirely student casted and directed. In the spring, the club presented "Night Must Fall", an exciting murder mystery. Both plays were great, and highlighted the incredible acting talent of some of Waltham's students.

DOMINATING THE DECADE

-Kerri DiMauro

WHS is known for our numerous fund raisers which help organizations, sports teams and clubs during the school year. Carnations, candy sales, and Student Santa are just a few examples of the noted money makers. Our annual Student Santa program this past year was a tremendous success! Due to an outpouring of generosity from every homeroom, over 250 needy children in the Waltham area were recipients of gifts and toys they would otherwise be without during this festive time of the year. Among the infamous and widely-known activities at WHS are: Homecoming, Dance Theatre, Senior Social, Gong Show, Senior Revue and Senior Prom. These and other events represent the culmination of thoughtful and organized planning between students and faculty advisors.

This year's homecoming week was a success! Despite the frigid weather, the football game was a 30-20 victory over N. Quincy. To complete the weeks festivities, the game was followed by a huge dance. Homecoming began with a giant scavenger hunt. Many groups competed, but Student Council reigns as winner once again. The next event of the week was the annual homecoming rally. Male athletic team captains were surprised to receive (while blindfolded) a special kiss from their "mommies" that afternoon. Also the homecoming king, queen and their court were presented. The senior king was Michael Fernandes and his queen Monica Pandolfi. Their court consisted of junior Chrissy Forbes, sophomore Julie Trumbour and freshman Alisha Gregorio. The following day, as seniors pushed through the college boards, preparations for the parade were being made. Many trucks and cars drove through downtown Waltham to cheer on the football team. The competition for the best float was judged by Mr. Sorin, and the winner, with a float they created themselves, was the Vocational High School. On the float they had representatives of each course of study offered at the Vocational School. Homecoming was a week of fun and school spirit. The tradition has lasted many years and hopefully for even more to come.

It was a night to remember. The snow was falling and Christmas lights were sparkling. It was the night of the first ever Senior Social. The girls were dressed elegantly in evening gowns and the boys wore their finest clothes. The Paine Estate was decorated festively with a Christmas tree, wreaths, and a mistletoe. The festivities began with a buffet dinner, followed by a night of dancing. The Senior Social was a perfect way for us to share our holiday spirit with fellow classmates. We hope future senior classes will continue this event, making it another Waltham High tradition.

"The Cast of the 1990 Senior Revue"

Senior Revue

'A Touch of Broadway' was a spectacular performance, put on by a large number of Waltham High School Seniors. With less than four weeks of preparation, the cast pulled together to perform an outstanding show. Showing spirit and enthusiasm, the students traveled in a snow storm to the high school in order the rehearse. The devoted group received support from the audience which helped the performers shine. Singers, dancers and soloists deserve a great big applause, but most of the credit belongs to the MC's: Maura Murphy, Vicki Capolla, Lynne Vellente, Eric Hoffman, Darren Waggoner, Chris Shaw and Matt Brennen. They showed their show-biz talents as they added humor throughout the night. Director Bob Eagle, Debbie Peros-Finnell and Mark Porrier and Mr. May worked behind the scenes to create a masterpiece as only people of their expertise and creativity could. It was a night to remember!

Once again, the Student Council sponsored the annual W.H.S. Carnation Drive. The event was a complete success, but not without the help from the National Honor Society. The Student Council Treasurer, Steve Puglielli handled the financial and organizational duties. Mr. Steven Goodwin, Mr. Anthony Piantedosi and Mr. John Cox helped with the distributions of all the flowers.

With the much needed and grateful support of volunteers and homeroom representatives, the 1990 Carnation Drive raised more money than ever before.

What a great showing it was for the 1989-90 Dance Theatre cast! With many strenuous rehearsals, the dancers worked together to perform the best piece of entertainment ever! Dance captain, Maria and dance instructor Debbie Peros-Finnell, choreographed routines then skillfully taught them to students with many different dancing capabilities. A few dancers performed solo numbers on the stage: Meredith Lobo, Shauna Boudreau, Dan Antenellis and Mike Jackson. Everyone was great and the show received much praise from everyone who saw it.

With over 250 kids to sponsor, the student Santa program ran its sixth successful year. Led by the National Honor Society and Student Council, each homeroom was encouraged to take on at least one child. Many homerooms took on more than one child and the program was also supported by many clubs and individuals. Under the leadership of Mr. Cox and Mr. Goodwin, the gifts were festively wrapped and presented at the Annual Student Santa Assembly. The assembly was held in December. Mayor William F. Stanley attended and thanked the school for its contribution to the city's poor. The Chorus performed many holiday favorites, followed by the band's merry selections. The stage was alive with hundreds of gifts just waiting to be delivered to the children of Waltham. Later that afternoon, the gifts were put in trucks for different organizations and churches throughout the city. These people distributed the gifts to the children themselves. Thanks to the help of Waltham High School Students, hundreds of children in Waltham were given a Merry Christmas.

On Thursday evening, March 29, 1990, the members of the National Honor Society hosted the second annual Teacher Appreciation Dinner. It was held in the cafeteria and it was the members' way of showing the teachers of Waltham High that they are truly "appreciated."

The dinner lasted only a few hours but the preparation consisted of many hours. Immediately following the close of school, each member of the Honor Society reported to the cafeteria. Each member was then assigned to a task. These tasks were salad washing, making meatballs, setting tables, and buying pounds and pounds of pasta.

That evening the teachers were greeted and even served by the students. The home cooked meal was a success but the fun was just beginning. Following the dinner there was a cut-throat game of Jeopardy hosted by Mr. Hallion and his lovely assistant Vanna White (better known as Keri MacDonald). The game was complete with a Jeopardy board, music, and even a student performed commercial.

Eventually the teachers began to disperse with a sense of well-being. Once all the teachers had left, the members of the National Honor Society were proud that they had given the teachers of Waltham High School the honor that they so greatly deserved.

The National Honor Society induction ceremony was held on May 22, 1990, in the Robinson Auditorium. On that evening twenty seniors were inducted into the National Honor Society. Throughout the year, these students worked with the twenty other members who were inducted to the Honor Society in their junior year.

The mistress of ceremony was Carla Salvucci, President of the National Honor Society. She led the group in reciting the National Honor Society pledge and in the traditional candle lighting ceremony. Carla, along with the other officers, spoke about the four standards of the Honor Society, which are leadership, scholarship, service, and character.

Many distinguished guests made an appearance and praised the members of the Honor Society for their accomplishments both inside and outside of the classroom. Mr. Graceffa, Principal; Senior Housemaster Mr. McGovern; and Advisor Mr. Cox addressed the group and had many remarkable things to say.

Together these forty students worked hard to serve not only the school but also the community, leaving the Class of 1991 with a tough act to follow.

On Monday, May 21, 1990, the members of both the National Honor Society and Student Council gathered for their annual banquet on the Robert Treate Paine Estate. The banquet was a time for the members and advisors of these organizations to celebrate the closing of a successful school year.

The members and advisors were praised by many distinguished guests, such as Mr. J. Daddona, Superintendent of Schools and Mr. Graceffa, Principal of Waltham High School, for their continuous hardwork and success.

Although the evening was rather formal, it proved to be quite sociable, as the members of the national Honor Society and Student Council discussed the past year in retrospect.

Senior Dinner

Many faculty members and students accompanied by parents and relatives congregated in the W.H.S. cafeteria on May 24 for the traditional Senior Dinner.

The evening began with the Class Song performed by Patricia Bellini. Then followed a dinner, the reading of the Class Will, Superlatives, Athletic Awards and a special presentation of Certificates of Merit and Awards.

At the head of the table were seated officers of the National Honor Society, Student Council, Yearbook Staff, Class Officers and the Vocational School Class Officers. Sweet harmony and a dazzling performance was presented by the notorious W.H.S. Show Choir. The Class of 1990 Senior Dinner was truly a night to remember!

The 1990 Yearbook was put together by a number of students from this years class. Many seniors volunteered their time by working at home, working in our office or by getting ads from the public.

Although we had many individuals working on our book, our Co-Editors put in countless hours from beginning to end. Co-Editors Carla Salvucci, Melissa Hegger, and David Demerjian started in the summer of 1989 and ended in July of 1990. They worked night and day until the middle of July to produce the best book possible.

The yearbook staff has added some new features in this years book. We added some art work drawn up by a number of seniors from the art department. We also added a fine art section featuring the music department, the art department and the drama department.

This years book does not contain as much color as books in the past. The primary reason is the slow economy and the number of ads received by us. Many of the businesses that contributed in the past could not afford to buy an ad this year or were no longer in business. Although we are down in the number of color pages, we still feel that we have produced a quality book for the finances we had to work with.

Mr. Salvo would like to thank everyone for the countless number of hours they put in to bring this book together. Mr. Salvo is especially grateful to the Co-Editors that were always around when needed.

We wish the class of 1990 the best of luck and we hope that you are thankful to the Co-Editors and all your classmates for all the time and work it took to produce the:

The Waltham High School yearbook was printed by Jostens Printing and Publishing Division, 4000 So. Adams, Topeka, KS 66601. The Jostens in-plant consultant was Cindy Owen. The Jostens area representative was John Neister. The advisor was Joseph Salvo.

The cover was a craftline embossed printed on Firebrand material #497 with Cordova grain and black ink and silver foil applied. The artwork was done by Rick Brooks. The endsheets were Sterling Silver #420 Transicolor material. The 356 pages used 80# Gloss paper with black ink applied for the entire book. Approximately 64 pages were printed with the four process colors.

The official school photographer was Purdy-Vantine Studios represented by Terry Bleiler.

The dominant type style used throughout the book was Benguiat Book #47. Body copy was set in 10 point with captions in 8 point. Headlines ranged from 14 to 60 point.

A press run of 325 yearbooks was delivered in November of 1990.

This Is The Time
Junior Prom 1990

The long awaited evening of April twenty-seventh had finally arrived. The Junior Prom was being held at the newly built Vista International Hotel which overlooks the Quabin Reservoir. We would be the first class to hold our prom there. The weather co-operated by being sunny and hot as we prepared for the evening. The boys became young men as they dressed in their impeccably tailored tuxedos and the girls became beautiful young ladies as they slipped into their elegant yet trendy gowns. The intensity and excitement that we felt mounted as our limousines arrived at the ballroom of the Vista International.

As we entered the foyer, each couple had their picture taken by the photographer. While we waited for dinner, we visited with our friends and classmates and commented on how exquisite everyone looked. Dinner was served around 8:30. The meal consisted of a salad, baked chicken breast, and mixed vegetables. After our meal we had the time of our lives dancing to the music played by the D.J.

As tradition at every prom, the queen and her court were appointed by the Vista's waitresses. Annese Merryweather was crowned Queen of the 1990 Junior Prom and Susie Pancaldo and Merideth McElroy her court. Annese and her date lead the prom theme dance, "This Is The Time" by Billy Joel and other couples then joined in. By 11:30, the tired but still energetic juniors dispersed from the Vista and were off to the beach or maybe a friends house to celebrate all night. No matter where we went after the prom, it was a time that we will never forget.

On May 29, 1990, the Sheraton Tara Framingham was the setting for one of the most memorable nights of our lives. Although the weather could have been better (actually it was a torrential downpour) we managed to make the best of it. The last minute details had us rushing around to tuxedo shops, beauty parlors and the local florists.

Although rain seemed probable on graduation day, spirits remained high and excitement was widespread. At 2:00 PM, without a drop of rain in sight, the sun began to shine as the graduation march began. The rows of red and white graciously filed into their seats at Leary Field. The ceremony was underway!

The two final events of our high school days are just memories now. Memories of our days at Waltham that we will look back on years from now and say "O-yeah, o-yeah, I remember that!" These were the best days of lives so far!

In order for the Waltham 1990 Mirror to ultimately become a success, many seniors headed straight to the companies asking for ad's. Without the advertisements in this yearbook, colored pages would not be at all possible. Unfortunately, because of the Massachusetts economy, many companies were not able to give their usual amount of money. Most of the companies and professionals that donated to our yearbook have always done so and we are grateful for their generosity and their adherence to this tradition. Thank you for your advertisements and your support.

THE KIRSCH OFFICE

DEDICATED TO THE CLASS OF 1990

Your Class of 1990
Soon will be leaving Waltham High
And fondly, and somewhat sadly,
You'll bid high school days, goodbye.

You'll take with you many memories
Of the happy years you shared,
With friends, and students, and teachers
While for the future, you prepared.

That some future now awaits you
As graduation nears;
You'll proudly accept the challenge
But you'll have your doubts and fears.

Take courage, you who graduate
You have so much to give;
You'll be the ones, who'll find the road
To a better way we live.

Your path may be to college
Or to busy industry;
Whatever you have chosen,
Do it faithfully.

Farewell, Class of 1990
Our hopes all go with you;
We all take pride and wish you well,
In everything you do.

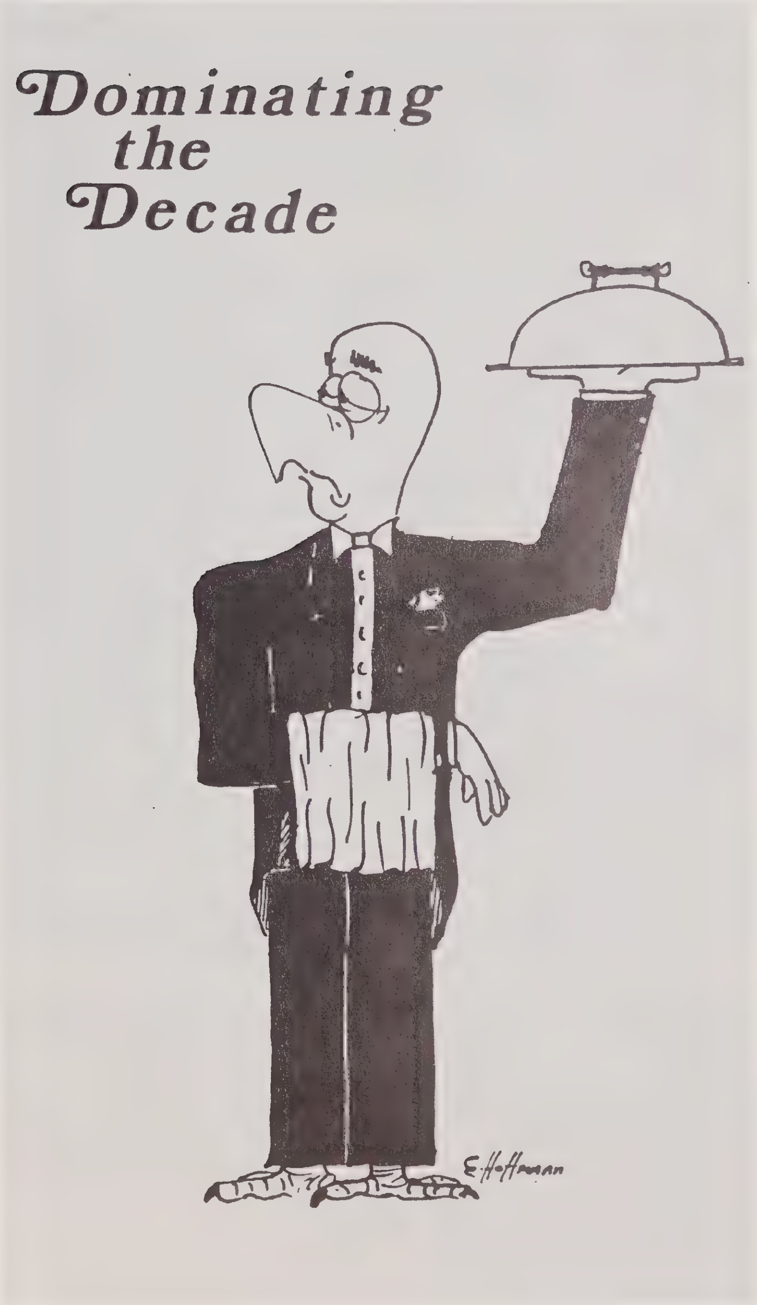
Class Prophecy



The battle is on! Playing against the boys is just what Olympic athletes Amy Jordan and Susie Santo are preparing to do with their competitive challengers Mark Gallagher and Mike Gill. These four opponents will engage in a dangerous triathalon which will begin tomorrow at 8:00 A.M.

The sports announcer will be Kevin Forbes, assisted by journalist and analyst Kristin Roberts. Illustrative programs for this event have been designed by professional artists: Michelle Fredette, Eric Hoffman, and Bob Moody.

Security has been provided by Shawn Souza and John O'Brien.

In case of accidents, injuries or trivial emergencies, doctors Carolynn Dougherty and Julie Bolles will be along-side the action and ready to intervene.

Transportation to this event will be provided by Grand Prix Champion Kevin Ryan and his selection of prize winning classics. Music and entertainment will include the sweet harmony of Patty Bellini, Melanie Rogers and Dave Demerjian, accompanied by a back-up band led by Greg Tomasetti. Boston Ballet dancers, Laura Magazu and Kara Rooney will also be included in the music program.

The challenge of the decade will soon be under way, people take your places please, history is about to be made. The Waltham Legends live on!

-Kerri DiMauro

1990 in review

The last year of our high school career was one that effected many lives in both tragedy and success. With the beginning of the new decade, many events shaped our senior year. The Stuart tragedy, with the deceit and derangement of Charles Stuart, effected everyone. The sorrow and hatred that we all shared for the Stuart's is one that is going to be remembered.

This year the box office draws were Batman with Michael Keaton and Jack Nicholson and Born on the 4th of July with Tom Cruise. Batman became the new fad of the 90's, with everyone wanting Batman shirts, hats, etc. The ratings soared, as it did with Tom Cruise. In music, Paula Abdul was a hit. She danced and sang her way into the top ten.

Sports was a big event in our year. The Pete Rose scandal shocked and shattered the image he had. On the other side of sports, the Boston Bruins worked their way up to the pennant games and shined for a while until their luck ran out.

In the spring of 1989, the students of Beijing fought for their political rights in Tienamen Square. A bloody massacre ensued when the Chinese government sent its troops to stop the students from further protesting China's system of Communism. Bullets were fired directly into mobs of students, killing hundreds. In September of 1989, Hurricane Hugo destroyed much of the Virgin Islands and Puerto Rico with its 135 mph winds. The total cost of damage following the five day rampage was over $8 billion. On October 17, 1989, a fierce earthquake struck the San Francisco area, collapsing the Bay Bridge and killing many people. The quake measured 7.1 on the Richter scale and caused $10 billion damage.

In the midst of all this tragedy, 1990 brought some needed changes into the world. New found freedom came to Europe when the Berlin wall was torn down. President Bush and Mikail Gorbachev are working together towards World peace. People have become more aware and concerned about the environment as the nation celebrated "Earth Day 1990."

As we look back on the past year, we reflect many things that changed our lives. Many of these events we will forget but many will change the way we live and keep them as memories of our high school years.

Teacher Will

The Class of 1990 wishes to leave the following to their teachers.

To Mrs. Collins, we leave you a chance to finally teach schizophrenia.
To Mr. Cox, we leave you a lifesize poster of President Nixon.
To Mr. Goodwin, we leave you more junk for your closet.
To Mr. Grinnel, we leave you 20 lbs. of pasta and meatballs . . . all to be cooked in a half hour.
To Mrs. Hantman, we leave you a new supply of blue slips.
To Mrs. Langley, we leave you an answering service.
To Mr. Leverone, we leave you a ``saw from Arkansas.''
To Mr. Matthews, we leave you a freshman free hallway.
To Mrs. Matthews, we leave you a 60 ft. gorilla.
To Mrs. Neylon, we leave you an ``A'' to give to at least one student.
To Mrs. Peterson, we leave you a mandatory one day final.
To Miss Russ, we leave you with Tom Seleck in a fancy restaurant.
To Mr. Salvo, we leave you another tourney bound team that does not miss signs.
To Mr. Thorp, we leave you some free time.
To Mr. Veins, we leave you sun block 45 for those bright sunny days.
To Mr. Walker, we leave you a life supply of Walker Dimes.
To Mr. Young, we leave you a class of seniors that show up on senior skip day.
To Miss Zardiackas, we leave you The Celtics.
To all math teachers, we leave chalk that stays on the board and not on their pants.
To Mr. McGovern, our dedicated house master, we leave you a great big ``THANK YOU'' for all your hard work that made our high school years so memorable and successful.
